What People are saying...

"What a hit! This event was one of if not the best TGIF event since I joined. Everyone had nothing but good feedback and there were laughs all around. Chris was very easy to work with."

Amanda, Atlassian

"Thanks for being a pro, Chris. You turned what could have been a tricky situation - no stage, no spotlight, people spread out - into a thoroughly winning situation, they laughed, and then they laughed some more."

Angus, Ensemble Consulting Group

"Chris was hilarious! I got plenty of feedback from staff after the event, everyone thought he was great! He got everyone laughing and all his jokes were relevant for our audience. He was great at pushing the boundaries without taking it too far. Definitely a highlight of the party. Thanks again it was definitely worth it."

Estelle, Beiersdorf / Nivea

"A fantastic performance and had everyone in stitches. We've received nothing but tremendous feedback from all those in attendance and people are still talking about the performance days later. A fantastic stage presence and controlled the room brilliantly, top-bloke, model professional and very very funny!"

Sam, Rugby Australia

"Chris was fantastic. He was relaxed and very funny and picked up on the vibes in the crowd very quickly. His comments directed at one or two people who walked in late or made a comment were priceless. We all wished he could have kept going longer! We'd recommend Chris to anyone."

Cameron, Langdon Building

"We had Chris perform at two product launches for us, and he was amazing. Had everyone laughing from beginning to the very end, and worked off the audience really well. His performances were definitely the highlight of both nights, and we would highly recommend him. He should be more famous!"

Michael, Hitachi Australia Pty Ltd

"Chris was great! I have had nothing but positive feedback from his comedy spot. He was very funny and managed to adapt to our environment well, picking up on little extras along the way to work into the night. I would highly recommend Chris and wouldn't hesitate to use him again. Job well done!"

Sharon, Kennards Self Storage

"Well done a stellar job. Fantastic feedback. You were brilliant."
